 - Band directors thank the parents & volunteers for their dedication this fall

Budget: pending for this year

OLD BUSINESS:

- Kudos to Jeannette and Dana for a super successful middle school night!
- $280 was raised during our recent involvement in Sanford's Alive After 5 from a Spirit Night at Celery City which coincided with the event
- We will be selling Arby's sandwiches at this week's game in lieu of Chick Fil A

COMMITTEE REPORTS:

- Operations (Kevin): no report
- Band Camp (Kevin, Sakia, Allison): TABLED UNTIL SPRING
- Chaperones/Volunteers (Sakia): for the most part, filling chaperone slots has been going well. It's great to continue to see new people continuing to volunteer and get involved with the band
- Fundraising: TABLED

- Events (Jeannette): Thanks for all the help with Middle School Night! Next event coming up is Senior Night on November 2. A SignUp Genius for volunteers and donations will be set up and the link will be distributed to the band parent mailing list. There are 48 band seniors and 21 Dazzler seniors we will be celebrating this evening. In regards to the balloon arch: events co-chairs will touch base with Amanda Hicks (the athletic director) to begin coordination of this. Invitations to senior night will go home with the kids this week sometime. Chef Tucker (of SHS's culinary program) will be catering the event (chicken and vegetables), Texas Roadhouse will be donating bread, with money leftover in this line item pizzas will be ordered from Little Caesar's.
- Equipment (Brian): no update
- Media (Allison): media team is in the process of pulling photos for senior night. Mr. LaBonte is going to try and coordinate with the tv production teacher at SHS (Daniel Harris) to see if he can assist us with lighting/location to undertake senior portraits over the next two weeks sometime (preferably during the band class blocks).
- Uniforms (Anita): we have a shortage in small gauntlets (we are in need of at least 20 pairs). There is also a known issue with the plastic plume holders within the shakos. The nut that holds the plume in place has been coming loose and sometimes falling off entirely. More shakos may need to be ordered for next year, as well. (Nate, the quartermaster, would probably be able to advise on this.)
- Spiritwear (Whitney): we have completely sold out of seat cushions. Recommendation: don't put dates (i.e., years) on the next batch we order
- Tech Support (Ray): no report
- Alumni Rep (Gena): no report
- Snowcones: no report
- Quarterdays (Tina): no report

NEW BUSINESS:

- Grants: info regarding some grant opportunities was presented by Mandy Burkhart for Kate Walking. Kate will be asked if she can help the band apply for as many of the grants she has alerted us to that she thinks would match our needs.
- Christmas tree fundraiser: packets went home with kids on November 5. Band directors pointed out that if every student were to sell at least 1 tree and 1 poinsettia plant, it would help immensely to offset the deficit we are facing from unpaid band fees
- Spirit Night: Texas Roadhouse on October 16th. We will advertise this: on Facebook, through eblast, and in band class. We plan to re-evaluate how many spirit nights we have planned and cutting back on some of these.
- Fundraising chair position is currently open: Danielle Clark volunteers to help with this when a volunteer to fill the chair position comes forward
- As we are serving in a volunteer capacity for the band, please be mindful that we represent the band and as well the school and conduct ourselves accordingly. Much thanks for the continued professionalism and integrity of our valued volunteers.
