New Parade Route

The parade will now assemble in the gardens of the Villa Borghese, above Piazza del Popolo. It will then make its way down to Piazza del Popolo, before following the well trodden and traditional Rome Parade Route you saw at sight inspection but starting with Via del Babuino instead of Via Corsa and ending at the arch on the far side of Piazza del Popolo.

We are extremely excited with the route as it gives you the opportunity to perform your 2 minute performance in front of the natural amphitheatre of the Spanish Steps, instead of Piazza del Popolo. It gives us a longer route with bigger crowds and you finish by marching and playing right across Piazza del Popolo where the parade ends and you have a short walk across Via G Washington to your coaches.

The Via del Corso is the most famous shopping street in Rome. Pretty high end stores all along the parade route.

- Tiffany & Co.
- Chanel
- Longchamp (letter goods)
- Prada Roma (walk down Via del Condotti)
- Gucci (walk down Via del Condotti)
- Louis Vuitton
